Janine-

I noticed that you thought that Russo was on vacation and forwarded my email to a few other people for clarification, and I wanted to thank you for that. I did get conflicting information about the case, though, as Stephen emailed me that the case plead out while Bob emailed and called me to let me know that the case NP'ed. Either way I wasn't needed, so thank you again.

Hope you get to enjoy the upcoming (shortened) workweek.

Hi Sonja,

Comm. V. [REDACTED] has plead out, and you will not be needed. Thanks, Stephen

Hi all,
I think I heard Russo was on vaca? Can you please pass this along to the JT ADA for tomorrow?
Thanks

Hi-

I just wanted to let you all know that I have 3 cases scheduled for Wednesday - one in Springfield, one in Northampton, and one in Greenfield. I'm not sure which case(s) will actually go (one case is from 2010, another was a rush submission, etc.), and I'm not sure if everybody wants me on call or if anybody needs me there just in case (I'm under the impression that Northampton DC has expected/wanted us there by 9ish lately), so I'm trying to figure out what works for everybody. Since the courts are fairly close together via I-91, I would probably be able to make more than one case, if needed, as long as I know fairly early and the courts understand the dilemma and possibly go out of order if necessary. Please let me know if there have been any changes in your respective cases and if I can be on call or if I need to be there at a set point. And one last thing - if I am on call tomorrow for you, it may be better to call me on my cell [REDACTED] instead of at the lab as I may be on the way to or at another courthouse. Thanks.

ADA Schmidt: Comm. v. [REDACTED]

ADA Russo: Comm. v. [REDACTED]

ADA Simonian: Comm. v. [REDACTED]
